II. FINANCIAL AID

Although the Geneva School of Diplomacy is committed to assisting as many students in need as possible, the number of internal funding opportunities is limited. These limited spaces are highly demanded and applications for financial assistance should be submitted together with your application for admission.

Bukurie Gjonbalaj Fellowship

Master applicants originating from Bosnia, Croatia, Kosovo and Serbia may apply for the Bukurie Gjonbalaj Fellowship. GSD awards this fellowship to one student each year. An applicant awarded this fellowship will receive a full tuition waiver for their Master Programme at GSD. Applicants are kindly requested to submit to the Admissions Office a separate "Fellowship Application - Bukurie Gjonbalaj Fellowship" together with their hardcopy documents. Read more...

GSD Fellowship

GSD also awards a limited number of fellowships to students who fulfill the criteria of financial need and academic merit. GSD Fellowships usually range between 10% to a maximum of 50% tuition waiver. Applicants are kindly requested to submit to the Admissions Office the completed "GSD Fellowship Application" together with their hardcopy documents.

GSD Fellowships require administrative assistance of up to 15 hours per week in addition to the regular coursework required for the degree programme.

III. PAYMENT

Enrolment at GSD becomes effective only upon payment of the full deposit as indicated on the invoices.

Each semester is payable in full before its start, as per "GSD's Academic Calendar".

As GSD invoices for the full academic year, payment deadlines are indicated on the invoice per the payment options selected by each student.

Tuition and fees are to be paid in Swiss Francs. Please be aware of the bank charges fees transactions to Switzerland and for the currency conversion to Swiss Francs. All bank charges and exchange rate differences shall be borne by the students.

Tuition and other fees can be subject to annual adjustments every academic year.

All financial transactions are conducted through the Business Office. Any questions pertaining to your account should be addressed: accounts@genevadiplomacy.com.

Payment by bank transfer may be made to:

Account's holder: GENEVA SCHOOL OF DIPLOMACY AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS
Beneficiary's bank: UBS SA
CASE POSTALE
1260 NYON
SWITZERLAND
SWIFT: UBSWCHZH8 0A
IBAN (Account no.): CH46 0022 8228 5581 6401 Q

*please indicate the student's full name as and the invoice number as a reference on all payments.

IV. LATE AND NON-PAYMENT

Late payment fees of CHF 300.- will be charged by GSD as of two weeks beyond the payment deadline on the invoice, or, as of the second reminder by GSD to receive the tuition fees.

GSD reserves the right to withhold GSD official documents (attestation, transcripts, diplomas,...), suspend enrolment for a current term, and/or refuse enrolment for future terms, if any tuition or other fees to GSD are not paid as and when due.

GSD will issue the final diploma to students once all degree requirements and students' accounts have been cleared.

V. REFUND POLICY

Registration Fees are in any circumstances non-refundable.

Any request for a refund must be written and supported by appropriate documentation (e.g.: Visa Refusal Letter, other official documents which could be asked by GSD)

a) Cancellation due to Visa refusal

Should the Swiss Authorities deny the Visa, despite completion of all administrative requirements, GSD will refund 100% of the tuition fees paid.

b) Cancellation for any other reason before the start of the courses

In case the cancellation is received:

- at least one month before the beginning of the courses: GSD will refund the totality of the tuition fees paid less CHF 1'000.- administrative fees, which will be deducted,
- less than one month before the beginning of the courses: GSD will refund the totality of the tuition fees paid less the deposit paid, which will be deducted.

c) Cancellation of enrolment during the academic year

If a student wishes to withdraw completely from a programme and therefore to cancel his enrolment as a student at GSD, GSD must be informed in writing by registered post by completing the "Cancellation of enrolment form".

The following fees remain payable to GSD:

BA-IR, MIR, EMIR DIR: 100% of the fees for the full year within which notice is given.

Note that, as stated above, tuition fees remain payable, even if a student is suspended or is requested to leave GSD for academic and/or disciplinary reasons or as a result of unpaid fees.

*In certain exceptional cases, and at the Financial Director's discretion, a refund may be granted, in which case it would carry the minimum of CHF 1'000.- as administrative fees.

d) Request for temporary suspension of studies

If a student wishes to temporarily suspend her/his studies, she/he is requested to complete, sign and return the "Suspension of Studies request form" to GSD.

The suspension will only take effect on the date of receipt of the said form by GSD.

There is no refund in case of suspension of studies. The totality of the fees, for the full year within which notice is given, remains payable to GSD.

Under that condition, and after the agreed suspended period, the student will be allowed to resume her/his studies without any additional fees for the equivalent period of time upon completion of the "Request to resume studies form".
