

GENEVA SCHOOL OF DIPLOMACY
& INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS
UNIVERSITY INSTITUTE

SHORT TERM CERTIFICATE COURSE (STCC)

We invite you to an invaluable experience in an international environment. By undertaking our accelerated one-semester-immersion course, you will gain first-hand exposure to the work of the international organisations and how diplomatic actors face new issues, policies and negotiations. GSD would like to provide a hands-on training experience that will equip you to engage in International Relations and Diplomacy.

Based in the heart of the most active centre for multilateral diplomacy, Geneva is host to over 250 NGO's, 68 foreign states, and has been hosting international organisations for over 100 years. Organisations such as the United Nations office in Geneva (UNOG), the International Labour Organisation, the World Meteorological Organisation (WMO), the World Health Organisation (WHO), the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) and the World Trade Organisation (WTO) have a seat in Geneva, with over 40.000 international diplomats and civil servants working in this international setting. Not only is Geneva the centre for diplomacy, it is also a welcoming environment of a wide range of cultures, with over 100 nationalities currently living and working in the city.

Whether your background or interest lies in private, public or the non-profit sector, GSD would like to encourage a fulfilling and useful experience that will enhance knowledge and boost a lasting career.

GSD will provide opportunities to gain reputable contacts, experience and resources in the field of International Relations and Diplomacy through the promotion of the different international events in the area, and of course, our distinguished faculty.

During the STCC programme you will acquire knowledge and awareness of contemporary issues through a range of seminars and guest lectures from high level experts and officials from the international environment.

GENEVA SCHOOL OF DIPLOMACY

The Geneva School of Diplomacy is a small, private university specialized in the teaching of International Relations & Diplomacy. We are located in the very heart of the diplomatic world. Our connections with surrounding international organisations, United Nations offices, missions and NGO's, the small, interactive classes with highly distinguished faculty members and the many lectures hosted by high profile guest speakers, give our students the ability to create a network that can be life-lasting and life-changing. GSD graduates will possess academic, vocational and practical diplomatic skills needed to enter their professional field of preference.

For more information about the Short Term Certificate Course, please go to our website www.genevadiplomacy.ch or contact us via info@genevadiplomacy.ch.

Studying at the Geneva School of Diplomacy for a Short Term Certificate Course would be a rewarding opportunity for those who have already followed a Master's programme before, especially in public universities. GSD provides students with a very rich and fulfilling syllabus for a period of four months, allowing them to choose those courses, where they would like to master new skills. Small studying groups and direct outreach to the professors opens up opportunities of networking in diplomatic and business milieux, which is essential in Geneva for future career building and finding preferable job openings.
