GSD CASE STUDY WEEKENDS

28 & 29 September 2018

New Paradigms of Diplomacy: Resources, Development, Geopolitics

Participants will explore the geopolitics and the changing nature of oil and gas sectors.

Other crucial aspects of geopolitics, such as strategic foresight and deception in international politics will be examined, as well as trends and cases in development diplomacy.

26 & 27 Octobre 2018

"Smart Power" - New Trends in the Global Science Diplomacy

The course will focus on three dimensions of science diplomacy (science in diplomacy, science for diplomacy and diplomacy for science), as well as the concept of the soft power of science and practical ways of overcoming the barriers to scientific exchange.

2 & 3 Novembre 2018

Blue Diplomacy: International Ocean & Marine Governance

GSD being at the avant-garde of the studies in Blue Diplomacy is introducing an executive course on challenges of water governance. Delivered by high-level practitioners, the training lays solid foundation for further diplomatic practice in the respective field.
