

Proof of English Language Proficiency Requirements

| Test  | Minimum scores required              |
|---|--------------------------------------|
| TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language)Internet                 | 90                                   |
| TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language)Paper                    | 600                                  |
| TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language)Computer                 | 250                                  |
| TOEIC (Test of English forInternational Communication)                | More than 600                        |
| IELTS (International English LanguageTesting System) Academic Version | 6.5                                  |
| Certificate of Proficiency in English - CPE                               | C Grade                              |
| Certificate in Advanced English - CAE                                     | B Grade                              |
| International Baccalaureate (Diplomamust be awarded)                  | Minimum English A2 at a higher level |
| City & Guilds   | Expert                               |
| ESOL  | Intermediate                         |

The minimum scores required apply to candidates for all programme levels.

Some candidates may<sup>1</sup> be exempted from providing proof of English language proficiency if any of the following options apply:

- Mother tongue speaker English
- Residence in an English-speaking country (> 2 years)
- Prior education in English (> 2 years)

<sup>1</sup>GSD reserves the right to request additional information or proof during the application process if required.